Worship the Trinity. Love our neighbors. Live out the gospel.

Redeemer West Side is continuing to monitor NYC Health and CDC Guidelines, and will adapt to new guidelines as soon as they are announced.

TODAY'S UPDATES

Today is RCS Sunday

The pandemic is presenting tremendous mental health challenges. Help others receive mental health care by giving to the Sponsor Client Fund. 100% of donations will help subsidize costs for people who cannot afford counseling sessions.

Sign up for Songs for the Road

May 20 | 8:30 p.m. | Zoom

Seasons of suffering remind us that we are not quite home yet. Thankfully, God has not left us to ourselves, but has given us a spiritual soundtrack to bolster hope and help and faith as we journey.

Virtual Gallery at W83

The Gallery at W83 is proud to present their first virtual exhibition. "Reflections" by Evan Halter features paintings of selected elements from images throughout art history, refocusing the viewer's eye on what might otherwise be overlooked, both on the canvas, and in life.

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR WEST SIDE COMMUNITY?

We are glad you decided to check us out during this season. Building a community definitely looks different right now but it's still important to remain connected to others. Below you'll find a couple of ways to start getting plugged in and we encourage you to learn more about Redeemer West Side by visiting westside.redeemer.com/new

JOIN A COMMUNITY GROUP

We have a number of Community Groups that have transitioned to meeting virtually.
